

I am extremely pleased with Indiana's laws regarding telephone solicitation. I like having control over which companies can contact me concerning solicitations. I do not want the provisions of Indiana's laws diminished by allowing companies who previously considered me a customer being able to contact me.